DATABASES

These databases are excellent places to start.

- Remember, using databases means less work for you.
- All databases have the citations done for you, look for the citation icon at the top of each article.

The screenshot shows the King County Library System website. At the top left is the logo and name 'King County Library System'. To the right are navigation links: 'Catalog', 'Books & More', 'Online Library', 'Calendar', and 'Kids & T'. Below the navigation is a section titled 'Log In to Premium Databases' with a note: 'You'll need an active KCLS library card to use this premium databases'. There are two input fields: 'Library Card Number' with a placeholder 'Barcode, not your username. Include 0s' and 'PIN or Password' with a placeholder 'Last 4 digits of your phone number if first lo...'. A 'SUBMIT' button is below the fields. A link 'Forgot your PIN or Password?' is at the bottom. Two red arrows point from the text on the left to the input fields.

Side note - not a database, but a very useful website recommendation: ProCon.org

The screenshot shows a library website navigation menu with a green background and a bookshelf header. The menu items are: Library Home, Library Catalog, Databases & eBooks, and Back to Resources. Below the menu, there are two main sections. The left section is titled 'Formatting Your Paper' and contains links for 'MLA Template: Word or Google Docs', 'MLA 8 Works Cited How-to', and 'MLA - General Formating'. The right section is titled 'NoodleTools' and contains links for 'registration how-to video & general how-to', 'Freshmen Assignment: Part I Noodle Tools Works Cited Page Tutorial (or this can be found via Public > MLA > NoodleTools_WorksCited)', and 'Part II MLA In-Text Template Google Doc'. Two orange arrows point from the text above to the 'MLA Template' and 'NoodleTools' links in the screenshot.
